

WARREN
CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

1869 - 1969

APPENDIX

In the "Gift List" mention is made of the Rose Window and the Memorial Windows, but we would also call attention to a quite beautiful round window, on the river side of the Church and at the head of the stairway. Perhaps this also was a gift from Mr. S. D. Warren.

On page 21, there is an item in regard to Deacon Wm. Varnum and his Mission Sunday School in Windham. We have recently learned that Mrs. Varnum went with him to play the organ.

The 56th Annual Sunday School report is an "In Memoriam" to William H. Holston. Mr. Holston had been Secretary-Treasurer since our Sunday School was first started (July 10, 1869) until Sept. 21, 1925 - 56 years. Under his picture and dates of service are these words: "An enviable record". Mr. Holston was very much liked by all who knew him.

Reference has been made to the Young Ladies Choir and to the Warren Male Quartette, organized during Mr. Taylor's pastorate and continuing for a number of years. The Quartette members were: Mathias Mogan, Edward Axelson, Ernest Theis, and Leland Knight. A very fine Quartette! Their picture and a picture of the Young Ladies Choir are in our Scrapbook.

In the June 4, 1968 Secretary's report reference is made to the recently published By-Laws. A Committee of five had been working on them for some time. Now they are being rewritten to cover both churches. Mrs. Joseph D. Small, Registered Parliamentarian, is heading this committee.

We wish we had all of our Church calendars, but years ago they didn't seem so important. However, here are a few quite interesting dates:

Miss Mabel Foster was our organist for twenty-seven years, from 1914 through 1941.

Mrs. Marion Fernald was Pianist and Director of Young Folks' Choirs, working with them from 1940 through 1952. Pictures of the Choir groups are in the Scrapbook.

Miss Marjorie Anderson was our soloist for sixteen years, through 1958.

And here is another interesting item - interesting and unusual. On Maundy Thursday, March 29, 1956, in the evening Rev. Clarence H. Clark, our Minister, received into the Church sixty-eight new members. Of that number, eighteen were school age; the rest were adults. What a record!

We were very fortunate to have Mrs. Harold Myrick as our Choir Director, beginning in September, 1967. She continued as a Choir member through June, 1969. And we have been more than fortunate to have had Mr. Ralph Duso as our organist. He came to us in 1950 and remained with us through June of 1969. Mr. Duso was always willing to participate in special services and even to play the piano for the Christmas programs of the Woman's Fellowship, and for very special programs such as our "Mexican Fiesta" and "Cherry Blossom Festival". Miss Anderson also participated in these programs.

After studying some of the Church programs one cannot help but think how times have changed. With cantatas, plays, and pageants, young folks (and some older ones also) were never without something very interesting in which to participate. We have just recently been given a program of a 1923 Cantata, with nine Sopranos, eight Altos, six Tenors, thirteen Bass; with seventeen in the Young Ladies Chorus; three first violins, two second violins, a Cello and a Bass Viol, a Pianist, an Organist, and a Director - Mrs. Marion Theis. Our Warren Male Quartette was a part of this Group. Times have changed!

The Woman's Missionary Society

Following are excerpts from the records of this Society, only recently located.

At the request of Rev. Jonas Taylor a special meeting was held after the regular business session of the Ladies Circle, on February 22nd, 1916, at the home of Mrs. Fred Verrill, for the purpose of presenting the work of the Woman's Missionary Society. Mr. Taylor opened the meeting with prayer and after making a few remarks he introduced Mrs. J. R. Libby and Miss Ellis, our State Missionary. Both ladies presented their subject in a very interesting way.

It was decided to organize immediately. The Constitution was read by Mrs. Libby and it was accepted. The first officers were: Mrs. Thomas Smith, President; Mrs. Charles Johnson, Vice President; Mrs. Jonas Taylor, Secretary; and Mrs. George Wilson, Treasurer.

At the first meeting it was decided to meet at the homes of the members once each month - with no refreshments. At the next meeting it was decided that they ask the Sunday School Supt. to "ascertain whether the Sunday School would be willing to give the proceeds of their Easter Concert to us". Apparently the Sunday School was willing because at the next meeting it was reported that the Easter Concert netted them eleven dollars and fifty cents.

Following the business at many of the meetings there were speakers from Portland, from So. Portland, from the Congregational Educational Society of Portland, and from greater distances.

At some of the meetings the women worked on quilts to be sent overseas, but usually the quilts were put together between meetings, and clothes to be sent in the barrels were made in the homes. From the records it would seem that at least one barrel was sent each year.

The "no refreshment plan" lasted only a very short time. The record indicates that refreshments were served at each meeting beginning with December 18, 1918; and, from that same date, at practically all of the meetings there was a period of music - piano, violin, and vocal. The first program was Piano solo, Miss Tena Hawkes; Piano solo, Miss Helen Knight; Reading, Mrs. Rowe; Mandolin Solo, Clyde Rogers. "All the numbers were very greatly enjoyed and appreciated, and Mrs. Rowe and Master Clyde Rogers favored us with an encore.

Early in this first year Mite Boxes were distributed and at the December meeting the boxes were opened and the sum realized was $67.14. The second year it was more than twice that amount.

Mrs. Taylor had been Secretary of this Missionary Society since its organization. Shortly after her husband's death she gave birth to a little daughter, and late in September of 1921 she was to sail to England. At the September 21st meeting, it was suggested that each one write a note to Mrs. Taylor to be opened by her on board ship.

The following item is under date of September 20, 1922: "It was voted to accept the gift of towels from the Craigie Class and Mrs. Macdonald was asked to thank the class in behalf of the Society". (We don't remember hemming those towels.)

"On Sunday evening, November 5, 1922, a Pageant, "The Lifting Hands", was given in costume at Warren Church. There were over thirty in the cast, each contributing his or her part to make the whole a success." The final report for that year is: "During the year the Society has held a Missionary Festival in March, a Cooked Food Sale in May, a Lawn Party in July, and a Pageant in November." Also, in 1922 Hospital Supplies were sent to the Hospital Department of Brewer Normal School, a barrel of clothing and bedding to Lexington, Kentucky, and $250. to two Missions Boards. (Quite a record for one year!)

At a meeting in February of 1923, refreshments were served by the Covenant Daughters - some of our people will no doubt remember that group.

Something which has seemed very interesting in studying this Missionary record is that on several occasions our Mission Board has had speakers who have actually been in the Mission fields and have given first-hand accounts of conditions found there - particularly in China, Japan, and India. To such meetings, women from the Westbrook Church were invited, and for similar meetings our women were invited to the Westbrook Church, and occasionally invitations were extended to other churches in the city, as in the following instance:

"On November 19 (1926), at 3 P.M., the Rev. Orville J. Guptill, the Missionary Pastor of the Maine Sea Coast Mission will be the speaker at the Ladies Parlor of the Westbrook Congregational Church. Mr. Guptill has worked among the fishermen of our coast for years and will tell of his trips on the Mission boat Sunbeam to the various island and seacoast towns of our State. The ladies of our Church would like to share this interesting program with the women of the other Churches of Westbrook. Will you help this meeting to be well advertised and urge a large attendance?"

In April, 1922, we were invited by the Westbrook Missionary Society to their Church to hear Rev. C. W. Eliopolas speak on his Americanization work among the Greeks of Maine. (Too bad we don't have recordings of some of these talks.)

There is record of quite a number of these joint meetings, but the following is particularly interesting:

"The February (1928) meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Warren Church was held in the Church with the Ladies from the other Churches of Westbrook as guests. The President, Mrs. N. A. Macdonald, opened the meeting by extending a cordial welcome to the ladies of the other churches. A short praise service was held with Mrs. Plummer at the piano. This was followed by prayer by Mrs. Tilton of the Baptist Church and Mrs. Wentworth of the Advent Church. Scripture was read by Mrs. Winslow of the Universalist Church. The Hymn, "Oh Master Let Me Walk With Thee" was sung by all. Mrs. Wheat of the Methodist Church followed with prayer. A selected poem was read by Mrs. Saunders of the West End Congregational Church. Miss Elizabeth Perkins, returned missionary from China was then introduced and gave a very interesting talk on her work in the girls' school, Wen Chen. After this all were invited into the Annex, which had been made to look very cozy and homelike by a committee of which Mrs. Thos. Smith was Chairman. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and tea were served and a social hour was enjoyed, giving the ladies an opportunity to meet Miss Perkins and also to become better acquainted with each other. An invitation was received from the Universalist Society to meet with them at the Westbrook Tavern on March 1st. There were fifty present."

Another interesting item is as follows: "Mrs. Frank Cloudman gave a splendid talk on personal experience as a Social Worker among our foreign peoples, especially the Italians. After listening to Mrs. Cloudman one must realize how love, sympathy and unselfishness are the real factors in being a successful worker among these new Americans." (This is from the April, 1924 report.)

"Miss Lombard of the Westbrook High School Faculty gave a very interesting talk on her work as a teacher in a Mission School in Puerto Rico. Miss Lombard also showed many pictures of the school and pupils, which added much to her talk." (April, 1929)

On April 22, 1931, "Miss Verrill presented as the evening speaker, Mrs. Rodney Roundy, who gave a most interesting talk on the State Work, especially stressing the Sea Coast Mission".

On January 19, 1932, "Mrs. Prince announced that a Silver Tea would be given in the Church on Monday afternoon, January 25th, by the Ladies of the Missionary Society and the Ladies Circle. Rev. Charles Miller, a returned missionary from India, would be the speaker."

At the February, 1932 meeting the matter of combining all the societies of the Church into one organization was discussed and at the March meeting "it was moved and seconded that the Missionary Society merge with the Ladies Circle". Apparently this merger did not take place immediately because under date of May 24, 1932 we have this statement: "We have had interesting programs at our meetings and very pleasant social evenings. And, we trust that the merging of the Ladies Circle and the Missionary Society will increase our interest both financially and socially."

In reading the records of the Woman's Missionary Society it has been interesting to find that quite a number of the young folks provided entertainment at their meetings, with both vocal and instrumental music, and with some readings. The dates below indicate a first performance - some performed several times and quite frequently Mrs. Plummer played the accompaniment.

1918 Duet by Lillian Bragdon and Mrs. Guy Plummer; Mandolin solo by Norman Swett, with Lillian Bragdon at the piano; Master Howard Chadsey, piano; Margaret Graham, piano; Tena Hawkes, piano; Clyde Rogers, Mandolin.

1919 Elsie Bragdon and Mrs. Plummer, duet; Tena Hawkes, mandolin, with Grace Manchester, piano; Mrs. Taylor, solo, with Martha Knight at the piano.

1920 Duet by Grace and Georgia Manchester; piano solo by Master Linwood Lagerson.

1921 "Double Duet" by Grace and Georgia Manchester, Helen Knight and Mrs. Jonas Taylor; mandolin and piano by Grace and Mabel Boomer; piano duet by Margaret Smith and Arlene Merrick; vocal duet by Eleanor Fraser and Norwood Macdonald.

1922 Doris Allen, violin, accompanied by Pearl Sinclair at the piano solo by Myrle Elwell with Marion Kelly at the piano.

1923 Mrs. Raymond Moore, accompanied by Mrs. Marion Theis; Singing by the "Young Ladies Choir"

1924 Violin solo, Master Fred Fitzpatrick; piano solo, Jean Macdonald. May 21, 1924 "Misses Jean Macdonald, Doris Allen and Arlene Merrick entertained with music." And, in 1924, Mrs. Cheever Smith sang "I'll go where you want me to go".

1926 Arlene Merrick, Cello Solo; Miriam Boothby, piano solo; and "Miss Mildred Burnham, vocal solo, accompanied by Helen Knight".

1927 Clyde Hulit, piano

1928 Cello solos by Evelyn Randall, accompanied by Miriam Boothby; Mrs. Olivette Kimball sang two solos.

1929 "Shirley Pratt sang a solo and also spoke a piece." Cornet and trombone by Albert Verrill, Jr. and Thomas Verrill; and violin solo by Elizabeth Knight, accompanied by Margaret Knight.

1930 Vocal solo by Margaret Stokes; and, "A group of young ladies from our Church Choir sang Christmas carols".

There were several violin solos by Mrs. Bassett, and there were readings by Katherine Hallowell, Irene Lagerson, Margaret Davis, Pearl Sinclair, Theo Anderson, and Agnes Pratt, and quite a number of piano accompaniments by Helen Knight.
